*Something there is that's gold,
A shining beacon
Beckoning over a sea of centuries
And across the liquid black of a thousand nights,
A home for the weary wanderer,
A windblown pinnacle.*

*Man claws forever upward toward it,
Falling less short perhaps as the aeons pass
But perpetually failing to bridge completely the maddening gap.*

*The answer lies in hands,
Hands that love, that build, that soothe,
Hands that pass the sacred heritage of humanity from sire to son,
From generation to generation,
Hands that must be taught to reach always for that glittering orb,
Hands that have a hallowed destiny to shape,
A world to make.*

*We are as grains of sand on the shore
Where that heaving ocean beats,
And our achievements in themselves are nothing,
Our griefs nonsensical,
Our motions petty,
But add together the pitiful efforts of an age of scarred and wrinkled hands,*

*And you have it!
The magnificence of spirit which brings the gold that much nearer,
If the shine is dulled or obscured by mist,
We must not forget the certainty of its existence or its gilded promise,
We must not grow weak,
For in courage all nobility lies
And to the noble belongs the gold.*

Don Westfahl

But it is our firm belief that the main source of happiness in life is work. Whatsoever that work may be, we have found that the best gift life can give us is that we have something to set our hands to, something in which to be busy in which we may be productive.

We Dedicate

Outside the home, the most immediate example is set by the adults who serve as our instructors and counselors. At East Bakersfield High School, we are fortunate to have many fine people to guide and show us what being an adult really means. One of these persons, Mr. John Harp, is particularly deserving of recognition and because of this, we who compile the Sierran wish to dedicate it to him.

Mr. Harp has a history of service as a teacher which suggests that many students have been given his fine example. Born in Colorado, this man earned his Bachelor's Degree from the Iowa State Teacher's College in 1936 and later received a Master's Degree from the University of Southern California. He taught, counseled and coached at Bakersfield High School and North High, and in 1956 he became Assistant Principal at E. B. Besides his school duties, Mr. Harp is active in Kiwanis, the California Association of Secondary School Administrators, the National Education Association, the California Teachers Association, and the Salvation Army board. It is obvious that our Assistant Principal has given much to his community and its youth. Besides attempting to capture between the pages of a book the memories of a year of life at E. B., we have also tried to present something of value for the years to come. Therefore, it is only fitting that we dedicate the 1963 Sierran to a man who has given much to be used later. Mr. John Harp is a fine teacher, a fine person, and an excellent example to all those who associate with him. If, because of this dedication, he receives a part of the recognition due to him, then its purpose will be more than fulfilled.

September Song

Tables and chairs crowd the senior park as people enjoy barbecued beef during the P I C N I C.

For two months a high school lies silent and for that time the world rushes on around it. Like an island it stands alone and waits. Let there is something in that serene expectancy that, more than anything else, renews hope in the continuity of our way of life. As long as there are places where the chance to learn is put within the reach of the majority and as long as these places serve generation after generation, we have a future. For a few months a high school waits and watches for that slice of life fate has seen fit to bestow upon it. Undeniably that life is bitter-sweet, but as a prelude and preparation for the things to come it is perfect.

Within those silent walls there is a pulse which throbs anew each September with the vivid, razor-sharp emotions which make man human. There is a kind of casual blessedness upon this pulse that we attempt to deny. Perhaps here is the fault. Forget the magnificence of living and what then? You only have the oppressive gray which comes from mixing tear stained black and laughter white.

The library is crowded on registration day as students prepare their courses with their counselors.

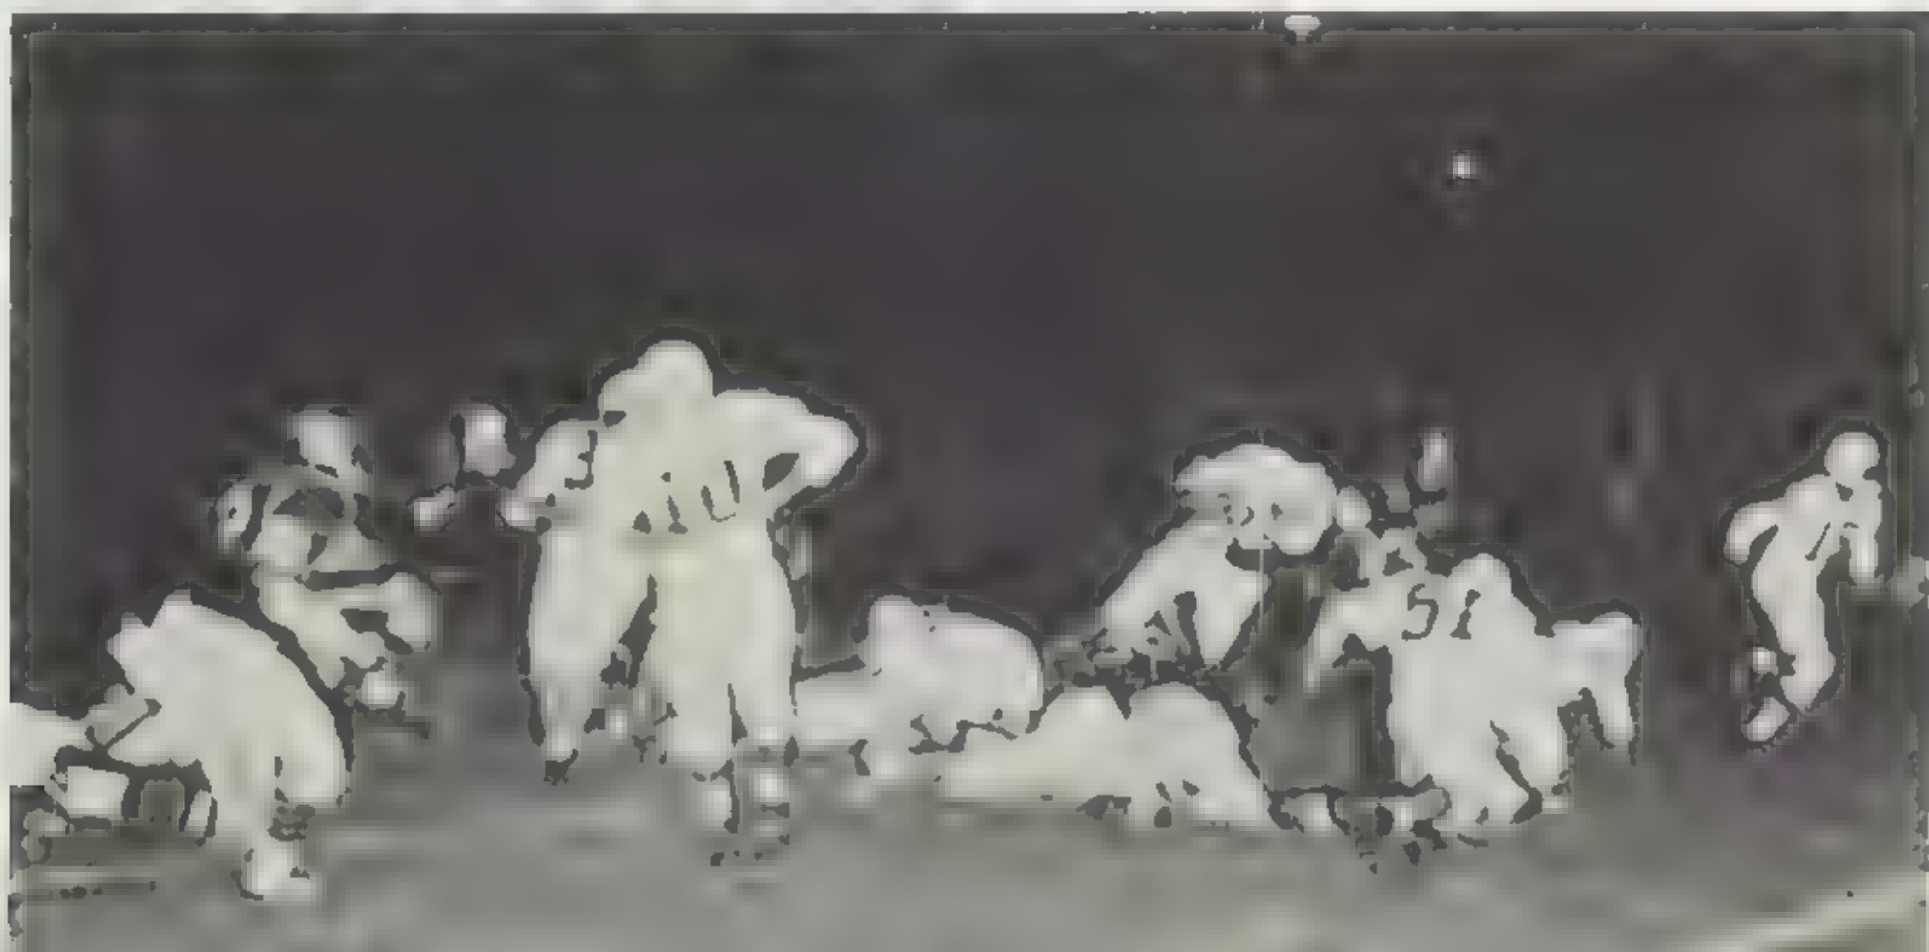

Frosh are the guests of all at the annual Howdy Hop.

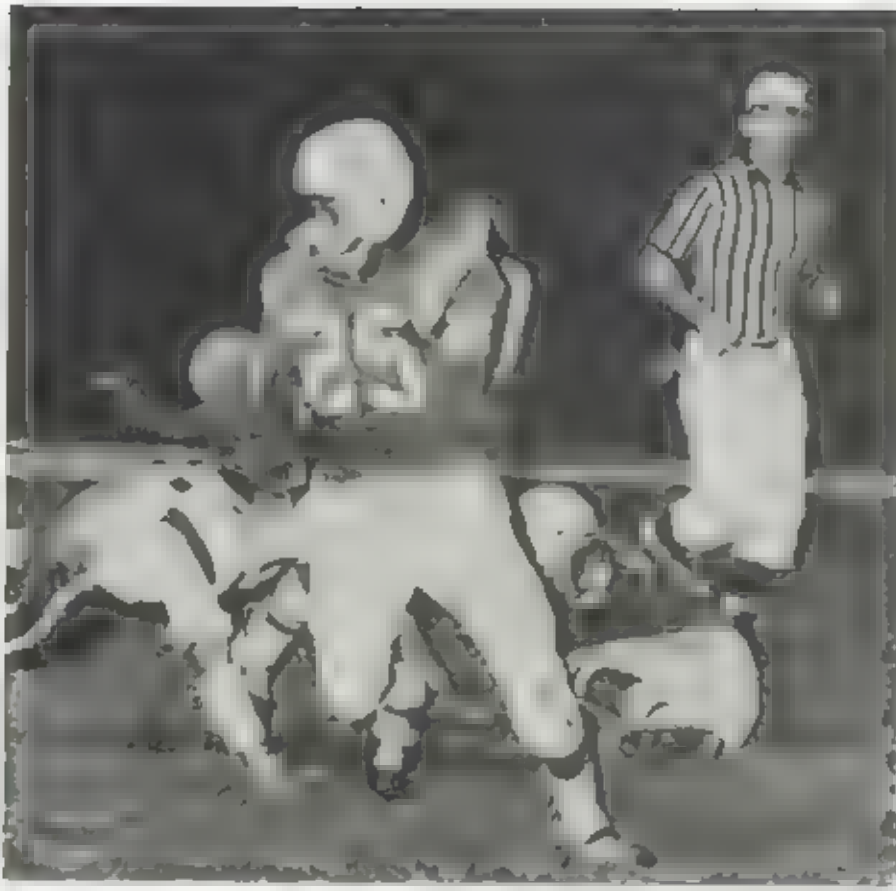

1. The first step is to identify the problem. This involves understanding the current situation and what needs to be changed. It is important to involve all stakeholders in this process.

City Champs

This year's mighty Blades and Daggers had a fabulous season. The Daggers stormed through a completely undefeated season while the Blades performed a spectacular feat by defeating the Bulldogs with a score of 27-6. The Bladesmen and Daggers both won the city titles and S. Y. L. Championships.

Coaches Migs Apsit, Hollis Shannon and Robert Aston were the guiding hands of the Blades throughout their nearly perfect season; and Bert Rowe along with Ed Knapp claimed the same position for the undefeated Daggers.

Student Productions

A school as big as E. B. has many talented students, and our outstanding student productions verify this. Advisers and instructors help in the final performances and their aid is really appreciated. Stage crew and other organizations assist in performances, also. They are all invaluable parts of the productions given in E. B.'s auditorium.

Just a few of the different performances included the Christmas Program, the Senior Class Play, Lincoln Day Play, IRC Talent Show, Coed Capades, modern dance exhibition and others.

Tension, agony and a final glorious victory highlighted B.H.S week of 1962. Beginning on Monday with the decorations and posters in the hall, students became aware of the fact that our mighty Blades would again face our cross-town rivals. After last year's unwarranted defeat, everyone was anxious to view the results of the pending game. Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday slipped by with agony pulling at the heart strings of all worried EBites who could hardly stand the wait before the final battle. Friday morning was the real swell... of spirit and excitement for the oncoming gridiron clash. Girls' League sponsored their annual Breakfast Rally that morning where guest yell and songleaders from B.H.S. were graciously applauded even though we "knew" they were soon to lose a game. Somehow school went on as usual that day with the exception of trumpets sounding a victorious CHARGE at the end of each class hour. The 3:00 bell rang and roars of spirit emerged from within the halls of E.B.H.S. From school to home and then to Memorial Stadium E.B. Blade fans traveled. The game went smoothly almost like a dream. The Blades remained in front all the way to a spectacular victory with the score ending 27-6, the worst slicing the Blades have given the Drillers for quite some time.

A true Blade 1962-63, was in fact, the first year that we adopted the traditional, long stemmed roses and benches especially enjoyed Betty Blade. Mickey Hopper this year's pick for the honor was not only a vibrant personality with a sparkling personality but also a natural talent. He has more than a great deal of. She served her class as a loyal princess, a leader as well as other examples of leadership which proved her to be well deserving of the title . . . Betty Blade 1962-63.

A few more words about the student who has won the Bobby Blade title during the past two years is the recipient of the Bobby Blade crown this year. Besides his tremendous athletic ability, Terry Maddux is interested in agriculture, winning many honors at several fairs. His versatility in other sports, particularly basketball, has also won him the title . . . Bobby Blade 1962-63.

Christmas Comes to E.B.

The merry Christmas, with its generous boards,
Its fire-lit hearths, and gifts and blazing trees,
Its pleasant voices uttering gentle words,
Its genial mirth, attuned to sweet accords,
Its holiest memories!
The fairest season of the passing year—
The merry, merry Christmas time is here.

The Executive Council of E. B. is a very vital part of our student government. Each member of this law making body is a student body officer or the president or representative of his class. After spending a few weeks in August at a training program held at Camp Condor, several of the Executive Council members gained valuable experience in student government.

Mr. Ben Kellner, the adviser and director of this Executive Council, led the group of students very well. Beginning with their assembly for the incoming frosh, Executive Council continued its eventful year by sponsoring the Howdy Hop, again for the benefit of the freshmen, and passing activity petitions for the various clubs on campus.

Different clubs and organizations of E. B. would not have run as smoothly as they did this year without the aid of I.C.C. — Inter-Club Council.

Officers Jeff Gustafson, president, and Susie Burnett, secretary, led in carrying out the aims of I.C.C., which were to unite E. B.'s clubs, to serve the school and community, and to help all organizations to function properly.

Through the year this active club sponsored many events. Among those listed on their agenda were the running of concession stands at the South High football game, supervising the annual Christmas Can Caravan week and dance, and building a float for the Booster Club emphasizing the Big Splash project. Their yearly duty of checking and approving constitutions of various clubs was again attended to and once again they sponsored a Greek orphan. Ilioula Katsiou, this year's orphan, was very grateful for the aid given her.

Judie Anderson, rally commissioner, guided the ambitious hands of the rally committee to another successful year of promoting E. B.'s school spirit.

Each year this committee publicizes rallies for all school games as well as being in charge of the annual Betty and Bobby Blade Contest, Basketball Queen, Know Your Players and other contests are also under this committee's supervision. The 1962-63 B. H. S. exchange breakfast rally was another of their successful events and the spirit of the students was raised high for the spectacular B. B. B. H. S. football game.

"What can we do at the next rally?", asks Judie Anderson, rally commissioner, as her consultants help her decide.

Administration

Without the guiding hands of the administration, students at E. B. would never complete a fully beneficial high school education. Every class in all the past years has been led by determined and extremely patient administrators who wanted, above all, to teach their pupils understanding and the ability to get along with fellow students, teachers and people in general. For all your help and understanding, administration, we say thanks!

Board of Trustees

MR. THERON McQUEN
District Superintendent

Five laymen and one superintendent vitally interested in the activities of all schools in the Kern County Union High School and Junior College District, of which East High is a part, comprise our Board of Trustees. Each of these men has an earnest ambition to make our school a better institution of learning and a more comfortable place in which to study. They are responsible for the adoption of policies for governing the district which includes finance, building, curriculum, employment and many others. Mr. McCuen, as District Superintendent for the past eighteen years, has served as secretary and professional advisor to the Board. It is through the endeavors and wise decisions of these people that allow us to have and maintain our excellent school system.

P.T.A.

E. B.'s active P. T. A. again had a very successful year. The annual P. T. A. Barbecue and Last Blast were among their most outstanding events. Other activities under the P. T. A.'s supervision were the membership drive and many informative meetings for the parents of E. B. students.

Mrs. Wallis Matjasko, this year's president, did an excellent job of conducting the meetings. The support given to our Parent Teachers Association by loyal EBite families was much appreciated and helped make our P. T. A. the outstanding organization it has always been.

Mrs. Wallis Matjasko, 1962-63 P. T. A. president, at the first meeting.

The 1962-63 P. T. A. Barbecue was again a complete success.

E. B.'s new principal, Mr. E. C. Mills, gives an introductory address to a group of P. T. A. members.

Nancy King, general chairman, talks with her Senior Banquet committee making last minute plans the week before the event

The almighty class of '63 under the guiding hand of Mr. Lincoln Dietrick and Mrs. Rosemarie Pacini had a very eventful and successful year. Ending up their four year trek Joe Sellers headed the '63ites and the very active senior class council.

Thoughtful Seniors thumb through their yearbook, realizing a busy year they had just finished after the Senior Picnic

The class' numerous activities included sponsoring the first after-game dance, choosing the traditional Betty and Bobby Blade candidates, giving the senior play, planning the senior banquet and senior picnic, choosing the outstanding seniors and having their finale at the Last Blast sponsored by the P.T.A.

"The Curious Savage," this years Senior Play drew a large crowd both nights of its running

Each March brings the anxious question of, who are the most outstanding seniors of the graduating class? The Senior Class Council determines thirty eligible students by looking into their past school record and nominating them on the basis of their academic and extra-curricular activities. These candidates are given a form to fill out, indicating all previous awards and honors, activities participated in both in school and out of school, and four teachers whom they would prefer to make out a recommendation sheet. This list is presented to the Scholarship Committee and twelve finalists are chosen. Finalists this year were Nancy King,

Morgan, Judy Munger, Greg Abbott, Toufy Haddad, Alan Hall, Terry Maddux, Don Westfahl, and Roger Williams. From these finalists the faculty then takes over, choosing the final six to represent this year's graduating class. They choose these six not only by their scholastic standing but also by their citizenship and leadership qualities. The results of the final vote are kept secret until the end of the year when all senior students receive their Sierrans. It is our pleasure at this time to present the six outstanding seniors from the class of 1963 — may their invaluable qualities and leadership characteristics guide them well on the roads of life.

What Does A Senior See?

What does a freshman see?

Endless halls filled with humanity.
Halls that are alien and unwelcoming.
Halls that are much too big.

Pride and insecurity are mingled within him. He tries not to let it show.

He, at once, has the comfort of insignificance and the discomfort of responsibility.

There are four years ahead.

What does a sophomore see?

Halls filled with humanity,
Halls that in a year have become familiar, even comfortable,
Halls that are only large after all

The tang of adventure has long worn off and he is allowed the sophistication of being unimpressed.

He is not half as unimpressed with himself as he would have it seem.
There are three years ahead.

What does a junior see?

Halls that have been conquered.
Halls that are maddeningly crowded and inconvenient.
Halls that are actually small

The glory of being a junior, an upper-classman, is not so overpowering after all. The role is much easier to play than he expected.

He does not feel this old, but of course he must be.

There are times when he has the faintly uncomfortable feeling of things going too fast, as if time was sifting faster between his fingers. The feeling is but faint.

There are two years ahead.

What does a senior see?

Halls that are absolutely inadequate.
Halls he has learned to master.
Halls that are dull, confining, and utterly without attraction.
Halls that are very faintly "alma materish."

They must be endured and defended at the same time.

The end is far too close not to be anticipated, but then again there is still that feeling of time going a bit too fast, only it's stronger.

There is one year to go.

The halls are emptied.

All the seniors have left.

Both are empty for a time.

The parting of the ways has left a void in both that must be filled.
That will inevitably be filled.

The graduates continue to be swallowed up by life, society, destiny.
The pieces slide into place with but few ragged edges.

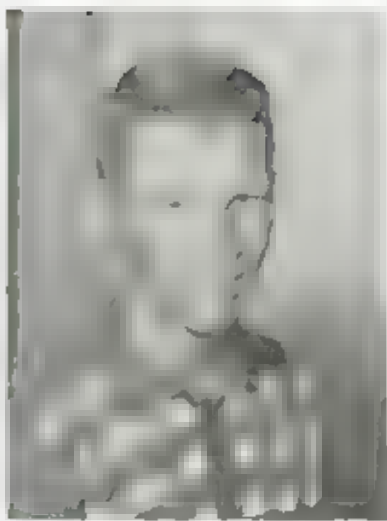

There are four years gone.

Kernal

Under the guiding hand of Mrs. Marion Turnbull, the busy Staff and editors of our school paper — the Kernal — successfully published E. B.'s weekly news. This four-page edition of East High news is sold every Friday to anxious students.

Among the special publications by this eager staff are the Thanksgiving, B. H. S. Week, Christmas, and New Years. Sierran and Senior editions, which turn out especially well, with Leslie Lerner, editor, encouraging and supervising the work done for each page.

Sierran Staff

The fourteen ambitious members of the Sierran Staff worked diligently to produce this year's annual. Planning the book's layout late in the summer, the editors, Cheryl Kyle and Margaret Campbell, eagerly presented the new idea of a black cover and a philosophical theme centering around "Hands to Build the Future." From these ideas the staff set out on their endless trek of assembling the parts into a final product.

Shortly after meeting the final deadline with a triumphant shout of glee, all members of the staff made a trip to visit the publisher of this year's Sierran, the Taylor Publishing Company. Each year this trip is made to acquaint the new members of the staff with what goes into the publishing of a yearbook. Something new is learned every trip, and all find it very interesting.

East Bakersfield High's literary publication Literally Yours is the primary project of Quill and Scroll, E. B.'s chapter of the national literary society dedicated to preserving and perpetuating high standards in journalism in the secondary schools and the adult world. This publication, however, is not the only activity of this organization. The group is in charge of the B. H. S. Breakfast Rally during the basketball season, two money making sales, and, in general, taking care of those duties on campus which pertain to journalism.

Don Westfahl, President, and his able cabinet; Cheryl Kyle, Vice President; Kathy Arneson, Secretary-Treasurer; and Sandy Levinson, Literally Yours Editor; with the thirty-five active and associate members helped to make the year 1962-63 a banner year for the club.

Quill and Scroll "old guard" initiate new members into the organization.

Photography

Students interested in photography make up a very active class that contributes an important part to the Sierran. Without these enthusiastic photographers the yearbook would be virtually pictureless.

Student Store

The most popular area on the E. B. campus before school, at noon and after school is the student store. Hungry E. B.-ites gather here at all times of the day to talk and purchase merchandise such as food, school supplies, books, and gym equipment. Loyal E. B.-ites will also find Blade jewelry, scarlet and blue pom-poms, and decals at the truly all purpose "Blade Inn."

Mr. Les Engleson is the guiding hand to the students who serve their patrons. These students who are the friend of all, develop skill in business as well as the experience of dealing with the public.

The stage is slowly being put together

Stage Crew

Any stage productions, assemblies, plays, noon movies, concerts, or special meetings for large organizations would not have been possible without the efficient work of this year's stage hands. Even though these energetic students, under the guidance of Mr. Stutzman, were rarely seen by those in the audience, no program given in the auditorium of East High could have been presented without their skillful preparation of the stage beforehand.

The competent work of this stage crew wasn't necessarily confined to the stage. Rallies on Permenter Field, dances in the cafeteria and other gatherings of the student body or large groups also called for their talents of setting up microphones and adjusting lights.

Under the guiding hand of Director Bob Campbell for the second year, the E. B. Blade Band had a very eventful and successful year. Drum Major Bob Jones led this group in excellent half-time and pre-game performances throughout the football season and for all parades.

This year the band had a very full calendar. Among its activities were the All Western Band Review in Long Beach where they were asked to give a special concert in the Veterans Hospital before marching in the annual parade.

Something new added to the agenda for this year was the hosting of the All Western Conference Band that was held here in Bakersfield at the Civic Auditorium. Honored band members from 5 western states gathered here to give its awaiting audience a very fine concert. One hundred and fifty members made up the final band, so those participating were privileged indeed.

Orchestra

Mr. Robert Mann . again directed the E.B. Orchestra through an excellent year. Beginning with tryouts the first two weeks of school, this superb orchestra went on to play many concerts. Among those given for special occasions were the Christmas concert, performed in the auditorium; a half hour concert given to the P.T.A.; and a special program presented to the Junior High students that will attend E. B. next year. Something new added to their schedule for this year was an assembly consisting of only music for the appreciation of the students.

The Kern County Honor Orchestra; All California High School Symphony, in Santa Barbara; District Music Festival; and the Regional Contest Festival were the honor groups in which many E. B. orchestra students were privileged to participate.

As a result of the construction of the Civic Auditorium, Bakersfield was honored to host the All Conference Orchestra. Many E. B. students participated while all the instructors of the music department helped host the other five western states that also made their contributions to the excellent orchestra.

Besides participating in these outstanding activities outside of regular school, the E. B. Orchestra also gave its annual Spring Concert and the last event of the year—Baccalaureate.

Dressed for the big performance, the orchestra plays for one of the student assemblies

A Cappella

The eighty members of E. B.'s A Cappella Choir kept busy a good deal of the year living up to the aims of their organization. These aims are: to participate in school musical activities, to promote better school spirit, and to further the correct use of the voice in singing. The club carries out these aims by organizing several activities through the year that benefit themselves and the entire school. These include the E. B. Christmas program, the Pops Concert and the music awards banquet. Also, the group yearly participates in the Christmas Parade, the district music festival, the all-district chorus concert, the choir concert, and the baccalaureate exercises.

Girls' Glee

Do, re, mi . . . this could be heard ringing throughout the music rooms as these choruses, E B's Men's Chorus, Mixed Chorus and Girls' Glee practiced for their appearances. Men's Chorus, consisting of all interested E. B. H. S. male students, sang at the annual Pops Concert held during the latter part of the year and also participated in the All District Kern County High School Chorus Festival. Girls' Glee followed along the same path as Men's Chorus but also offered their talents at the Christmas program held at E. B. Mixed Chorus, consisting of students just beginning to develop their vocal talents, had no performances during the year but gained a better understanding of music and the ability to read music by sight.

Anywhere there was music along with spirit this past year, there you would find the Pep Band. Under the leadership of Bob Burns, these fifteen band students eagerly participated in all rallies, football games, and basketball games. With Mr. Robert Campbell as adviser, this organization helped the song-leaders in their routines whenever needed, and they also helped motivate the spirit of all by arousing the mood to sing.

To become a part of this active band, the members were auditioned by Mr. Campbell at the beginning of the year and chosen according to their talent. Most of these students had been active in regular band and chose to put forth their skills in school spirit. The majority are lower classmen and juniors, so we will have a good, spirit-arousing Pep Band next year.

Majorettes

These Blade twirlers, April Dahl and Linda Wetzel, led the E. B. band very well with their snappy steps and cheerful smiles. They brightened each home football game at half-time and all parades in which the Blade Band participated.

Both girls being freshmen this year, did a fine job with only their junior high school experiences behind them. They put out all of their skill, time, and effort without class credit, and were presented a very attractive majorette pin at the Music Awards banquet held during the latter part of the year.

HARRY WETZLER
President

Varsity Club

The active hands of the Varsity Club members again contributed their yearly spirit and services to E. B. All of those who belong to Varsity Club have either earned a varsity letter in one sport, or have been a B-Class letterman for three years.

Advisers Ed Krapp and Hollis Shannon guide the leading hand of Harry Wetzler as he upholds his worthy position as President. This group of athletes sponsor the boxing tournament each year, as well as providing a very interesting noon movie for the enjoyment of all students. The annual Huff and Puff football game is another of this club's numerous activities.

Terry Newman and Joe Sellers help out in the wrestling room before a meet.

Tickets are taken for the noon movie sponsored by Varsity Club.

Key Club

Members of Key Club are voted in by teacher's vote and initiated by the previous members at a meeting near the end of the year. At this meeting the officers for the coming year are also installed. Being one of the most serviceable clubs at E.B., this year's Key Club had many activities. Printing and selling football programs, making concrete benches for the Senior Park, supervising a drive for the needy, helping with E. B. car check at the beginning of the year and helping to keep the cafeteria clean were services rendered by this club during the school year.

President Jeff Gustafson, along with advisers Mr. Jean Philipp and Mr. Leon Tedder lead the group in a very eventful year. Besides the activities at school the Key Clubbers ventured to Carmel for the regional convention that lasted a full weekend, spoke to different Kiwanis Clubs about their citizen quotient program, and aided the various Kiwanis groups in decorating for their Kiwanis Convention held at the Civic Auditorium.

Key Club members admire the trophy case they donated to the school.

Girls' League

JANNA WHEMON
President

Girls' League, headed by Janna Whemon, participated actively during the school year. The organization put on the traditional Winter Girls' Date. The theme was Silver Fantasia, and was in honor of E. B.'s twenty-fifth anniversary. Before the school year began, members of Girls' League worked diligently addressing post cards and sending them to the incoming freshmen explaining the Big-Little Sister Party. Also, for the orientation of freshmen was the Spaghetti Feed. On November 9, B. H. S. Day, at 6:30 a.m. many yawning and sleepy figures could be seen filing into E. B.'s cafeteria for the Breakfast Rally, sponsored by Girls' League. Other activities included on the Girls' League agenda were two cake sales, Spring Girls' Date, a Mother-Daughter Tea honoring mothers, Girls' League Dessert honoring the graduating senior girls, and Coed Capades. One especially large project undertaken by Girls' League was the Central California Girls' League Convention which was held in the E. B. auditorium, cafeteria and bungalow. It was an all day event consisting of discussion groups and speakers. Other high schools in this area also participated making it a successful convention.

J. S. A.

Organized to promote a better understanding of our government and its fundamental operations is Junior-Senior Assemblymen. On the E.B. campus this club is a very popular one and all meetings are well attended.

Several of the activities under operation by J.S.A. this year were having special speakers, selling the fall and spring calendars to interested E.B.ites and also participating in out of school events. Advisers, Reed Rosenberg and Jack Cantrell, oversaw all activities and President, Alan Hall, led the group very well. Each meeting was enacted on a very official basis with knowledge of parliamentary procedure.

Co-Adviser, Mr. Rosenberg, hands out J.S.A. Calendars to club members who in turn sold them to the student body.

Shirley Wold and Margaret Comer look over the agenda with (Co-Adviser) Mr. Cantrell.

A group of J.S.A. members plan for a meeting.

SHARON TALLMAN

Presenting the I. R. C. Talent Show, sponsoring the Valentine Dance, offering a scholarship, giving a steak bake and befriending foreign students not sponsored by A. F. S. are among the many activities of this organization. Because I. R. C. is one of the most popular clubs on campus, advisers Bill Vinson and Dick Scatena enjoy scheduling the program for its members.

Goals of this organization are to better the relationship between races and to keep harmony among all students at E. B. These aims were reached very effectively by officers Margaret Magnus, Suzanne Wilder, Vicki Squires, Susie Burnett, Kathy Marantos and President Sharon Tallman.

Future Farmers

Agriculture and the building of our future farmers is the important job of this organization. Without the knowledge accumulated from classes and the experience gained from being a member of this type of club our country's farmers would be in a poor state of affairs.

Farming in Kern County is a thriving occupation and these students are rapidly learning how to adapt themselves to the many vigorous chores necessary in becoming a successful farmer in this fruitful valley.

Numerous top honors were received at the Kern County and California State Fairs by members of this E. B. farmers group.

Composed of students interested in playing the piano, as well as those that are already skilled at this talent, the piano club was a well developed club this year. Most of the members of this group acquired membership by being a student of Miss Lynn, who is the adviser of the organization.

Selling Mason's Mints and other types of candy was the main money making project of the club this year. Money raised went toward a scholarship to one of the outstanding pianists. Besides developing a good ear for music and the ability to play the piano well, this club also promotes friendliness and good citizenship.

Make-up, costuming, and directing were a part of each student's achievements for the year — with every member of the club doing his share in each department.

Featuring only six Varsity returners, hosts of ex-Junior Varsity, B class members of previous championship teams, and a new coaching staff, Coach Marger "Migs" Apsit groomed his '62 grid squad to perfection and carried off two championship trophies. This year he also placed the greatest number of players on the all city and league teams.

This power packed team boasted the outstanding back of the year, Terry Maddux, who also was recipient of the E. B. Harry Coffee's award as the outstanding football player for the second straight year.

The Blades ran up an impressive record of 8-1. This included seven victories in a row, and whipping the Bakersfield High Drillers 27-6, the worst beating ever sustained by the cross town team.

Eight seniors of the almost undefeated team were voted by the six city coaches to represent E. B. on the all-city team. Terry Maddux, Bob Boyer, Ray Bateman, Bob Martini, and Jon Wells captured spots on the offensive team while Joe Sellers, Charles Gillenwater, and Lee Hammett placed on the defensive squad for their outstanding work all season.

Receiving spots on the all-South Yosemite League first team were again Terry Maddux, Bob Boyer, Jon Wells, Bob Martini, and Ray Bateman. Socorro Pena placed on the second team for the sixth all-SYL member from East High

All four of the juniors who earned a place on the varsity received monograms and will be back in action next year. Ben Olson, probably the fastest runner on the team and best break away runner since Bill Mackey, will be setting the pace in the backfield next season. Blocking up front will be Ben Sellers and Ron Warkentin in the line and John Young at one of the end positions.

Besides the one loss received by the Blades, their closest threat came against the stubborn South High Rebel crew. In '61, Coach Larry Lafond and company were riding high with a perfect record when they met the Blades. The Blades were up for the game and ended the Rebel streak with a 27-19 downing. This season South wanted revenge and almost got it, but were turned back when the powerful Eastern team went on to win 19-18. Russell Hins decided the contest with his extra point after the touchdown.

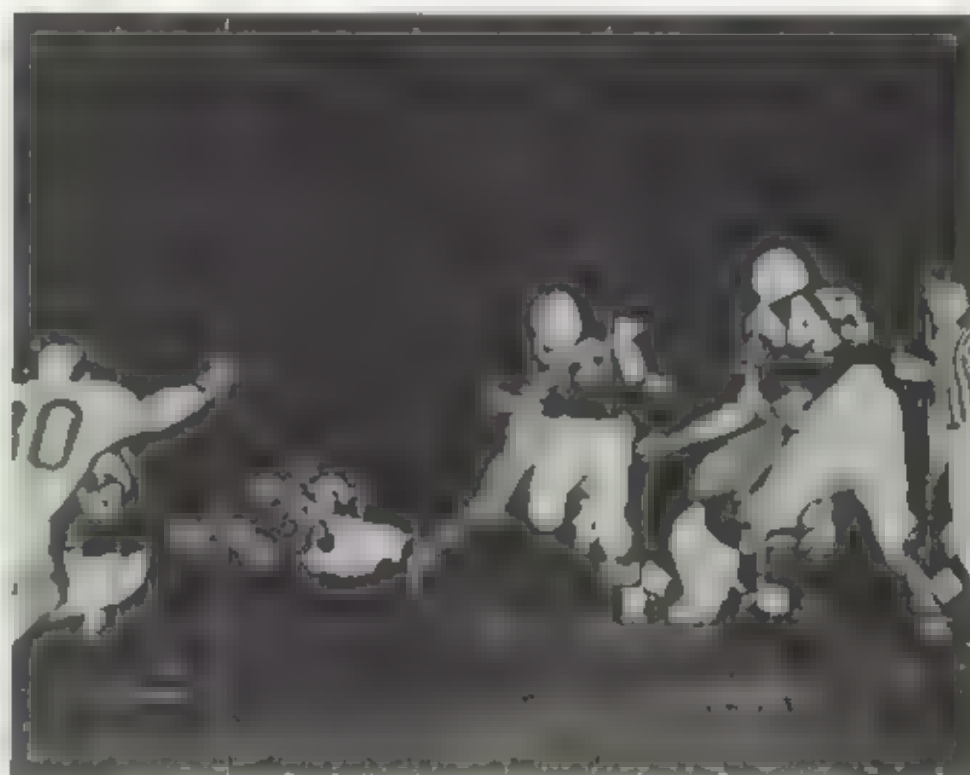

To set the final crown on this nearly perfect 1962 season, the Mount Vernon crew tallied up 204 points for the total session while the defensive unit held only 72 markers. This gave our Almighty Bladesmen an average game score of 2-8.

During the year the Dags accumulated 287 points to their opponents' 47, ending the year with a heart stopper over Taft, 27-20. E. B.'s C class Dirks, under coach Robert Harris, ran up only one win but tied three for a season mark of 1-4-3. To back Jesse Flores and wingback Ker Fode turned in fine performances for the year, with Flores being the top scorer.

Blades

Having the strength of only one returning letterman, Coach Ralph Krafve built up a team that had no experience at the start of the year, but finished up with experience gained through hard play.

Terry Maddux led the hard luck Blades as their captain and experience man. He placed as the top scorer on the team and won the outstanding player award.

Backing up Maddux was a threesome of juniors who will be back next year. Ben Olison, Ernie Dominguez, and Jack Brigham—all were outstanding and gained important experience which will be of great value next year. Coach Krafve's crew wound up the season with a 13-8 log.

Maddux shows great emotions as he proposes to sink the ball.

Daggers

F.B.'s Dagger basketball squad captured the South Yosemite League title in one of their most successful years. They finished the year with a fine 15-4 season record including a 9-1 league log. Their lone loss in league play came against B.H.S., who shaped a winning streak of nine games.

Center Bob Cowan paced the team with his point scoring and rebounding. Hawks on defense were Mike Pettis and Gus Ruiz while Dennis Lockhart and Lance Calloway did the majority of the play calling. Cowan acted as team captain with Pettis being the spirit leader. Cowan led in all fields of statistics by being leading scorer with more than 200 tallies and leading rebound man.

Goodrich paced the team with his scoring, and he and Benton led in the rebound column.

Coach Mark Van Voorhis and squad couldn't claim a championship team but were led by spirit and drive and finished third in league. Juniors Richard Cervantes, Bob Henry, Mike Virgin and Vernon Taylor led the team through the year and are top candidates for varsity spots next season.

Placing third in league for the '63 season and beating Bakersfield rate as the out-standing moments for coach Jack Cantrell's D class Darts. The D's plastered B.H.S. 26-14 in one league game. A higher league placing might have been attained if a few of the one point losses were wins.

Boxing

For two weeks during the first semester of the school year noon hours were devoted to boxing. Each fourth and fifth period the Varsity Club sponsored these matches and also the final tournament. The winners in the first week of prelims went on to fight in the next week of semis and those winners on to the Friday night finals. Finalists received gold and silver gloves for winter and summer respectively in the different weight divisions.

Lettermen's Banquet

At the conclusion of each football-cross country season there is a banquet in honor of the lettermen in each sport. This year's honors of letters and trophies went to the Varsity and Dagger squad members, while only letters were presented to the cross country team and other football squads. After the dinner, served by the Future Homemakers, this program also included special awards such as the Outstanding Football and Cross Country man, the Harry Coffey Award, and the Most Inspirational Players of both sports.

Trainers

Equipment for active sports was the main job of trainer George Taussig and student trainer Tom Anton. These two trainers gave first aid to all injuries that occurred on the playing field and also issued uniforms during the different seasons as the varied sports occurred.

Blades

Terry Maddux gets pointers on slide from Mr. Carpenter while the rest of the team looks on

With the ultimate goal of winning their third South Yosemite League Championship, the main trend of thought from the opening day of spring training, Coach Les Carpenter's varsity stickmen battled their way through a tough league schedule. Two returning mound regulars, their battery mate and two returning outfielders bolstered their hopes of a number one finish.

Practice games saw the Blades capture three of four and added much needed experience for the tough uphill league trek. Starters Ron O'Farrell and Mike Horton led the mound staff backed up by ex-JV Adolph Rodriguez and Robin Hess, while able bodied Steve Dean did the work behind the plate. Ex-Razors pacing the infield were Kip Campbell, Doug Elliott and Terry Johnson with sophomore star Jerry Pasquini holding down the shortstop spot. Backing Terry Maddux and Dwayne Wilbanks in the outfield were former JVmen Jeff Gustafson, Rod McClintock, Charles Gillenwater and Max Rodriguez.

Constant hitting practice was the main item of work each week to sharpen the batting eye while shag sessions and pepper games helped keep the errors down. With a new system of meeting every SYL team four times during the season, the diamond men fought through the hot days of April and May for the beloved crown.

Richard Cervantes and Dave Scatena headed the infield with Phil Pierucca the lone outfield candidate with JV experience.

JV and Frosh

Three returning squad members and a host of promising freshman players aided in the drive for the league crown along with frosh star Harry Leving. With inexperience in playing baseball on the high school level their biggest problem. Freshman coach Ralph Krafve sent his eager frosh crew through many arduous practice sessions trying to master the fundamental arts of the game in preparation for the league foes.

SWIMMING

Blade Swimming

The '63 swimming season approached Coach Hollis Shannon and company at a speedy rate with few pre-league meets on tap before the South Yosemite League rounds set in. Working from a crew of only five returning letter winners, the Blades faced an upstream battle all the way. Freestyle ace Bob Boyer; butterfly, Terry Newman; Don Prewett, Theron "Buzzy" Taber and Craig Uhl formed the nucleus for the splash team.

Moved up from B Class to compete as varsity men were Richard Bonelli, Jeff Hammett, Dwayne Smith, Joe Monford, Joe Sellers, and Roger Molhook to help in getting the Blades league contenders.

Blade tankmen toppled over every early season opponent and were high flying when they had to take second place in the E.B. Invitation meet to B.H.S. for the second straight year. Again the league scene saw E.B.-B.H.S. tussles as the main attraction.

Terry Newman opened early in the season by breaking his own 200 yard individual medley in a Delano meet. Boyer looked outstanding throughout the season while Taber, Uhl, Prewett, and Sellers also sparkled.

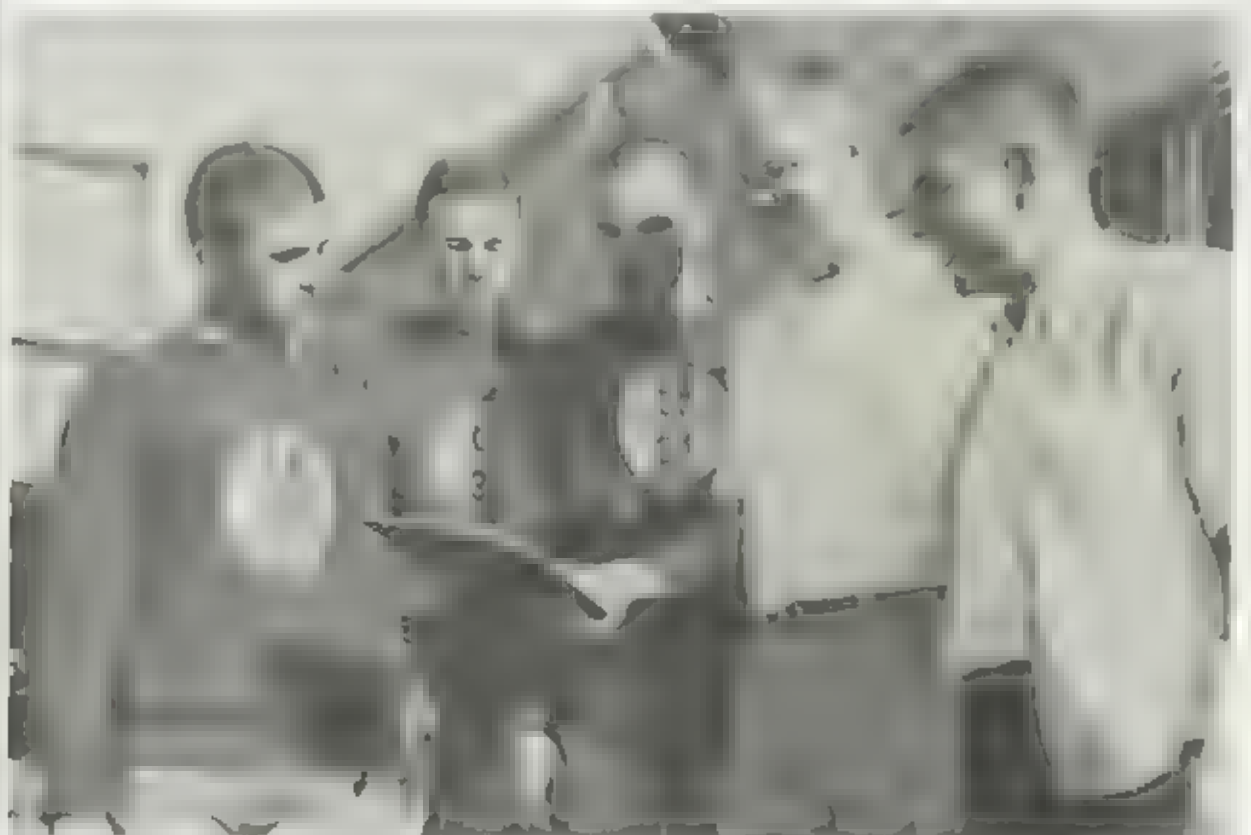

Depth was the biggest problem, but with the continuance of the season the Blades looked more and more like real competitors and stood out in all meets.

Sparkling as one of the big B Class teams of the South Yosemite League, East High's Dagger splashers marched through a tough practice session and on into league in high hopes. The Dags are bolstered by four returning lettermen, one returning squad member and three Dirk lettermen.

Dagger returnees were Jim Crane, Harry Wetzler, Tim Boyd and Larry Tillery with Brian O'Neil the squad member, while Dirk lettermen swimming B were John Pair, Pug Jones and Mike Martin.

Bladettes

Charging through pre league competition without a loss Mrs. Elsa Kominitsky's gal splashers enjoyed one of the most successful campaigns in their history. Top performers for the girls this season were Pat Phelan, Lynn Higby, Candy Art, Mary Kay Goertz, Anne Payne and Soundra King, with top divers in Carol Johnson and Pat Wilson.

Bladettes placed third in the E.B. Invitational and hoped for a successful league campaign and the league title.

Blade Cinderman

Pacing the '63 edition of Coach Chuck Wienmann's track squad were eight returning lettermen with strength in the sprint and hurdle events, with the field events being the main weakness. Blades compiled a fine season log and had many outstanding individual stars.

Sprinters Rueben Elias and Ben Olson, hurdlers Lee Davis and Gary Ingersoll, and middle distance man Socorro Pena headed the staff of cindermen in the track department. Broadjumper Nat Cooper, pole vaulter Candy Carrizales, and shotman Doug McGinty were the top performers on the field level. Cooper performed outstandingly throughout the year with his first meet jump coming only  $1\frac{3}{4}$  inches short of the school mark.

One of the main concerns of the thincladers this season was in qualifying more individual entries in the league and valley tournaments, along with working toward team honors.

B Class strength for the track season was not up to last season's valley champs, but many fine efforts were given and an outstanding record was compiled for the season. Only three Dags or aftermen bolstered the strength of the crew but six Dirk monogramists backed up the B experienceds. Sprinters and middle distance men, Bob and Frank Henson, along with hurdler Don McCoy headed the list of returnees with Ernie Hulse, Mike Blair, Ernie Holmes, Ray Carte, Mike Mendiburu and Milt Wolfe.

Daggers and Dirks

This year, according to Coach Chuck Wenmann, most of the team's strength was in the C Class division. The two Hensleys are both C and were moved down when not needed on Dags to build up strength of the Dirks. James Cunningham was the outstanding C Class sprinter winning the 50, 100 and 150 yard dashes and was one of the four men on the relay team.

Experience, five returnees and optimism led Coach Marge "Migs" Apsit through one of their most successful and winning seasons of the year. Sparking each match were low averages and sub-par scores which defeated many opponents through the year. Seniors Carl Bryan and Wayne Winter and juniors Greg Dunn, Dave Mettler, and Lonnie Baldwin formed the veteran unit. A new green Volkswagen truck was incorporated over the year for the weekly trips to the greens.

Off to another day of practice!
